HOW TO ENTER THE CONTEST

1. Choose a book whose cover doesn't tell the whole story—it can be a personal favorite or a random title from your library with an ugly cover.
2. Design a new cover that will help people fall in love with your book! The medium is up to you: photography, graphic design, collage, etc.
3. Submit your new cover design with your name, phone number, and the name of your branch to teenservices@chipublib.org between Dec. 15, 2014 and Jan. 5, 2015.

All submissions will be entered into a raffle for three handheld video cameras and three tangling drawing kits.
